What: Get Involved Resources and Guides

- The Edgemere plan is as a living document to guide public participation and to actively drive neighborhood improvements.
- To promote continued community involvement this document contains the following resources and document guides.

Resources

“Get Involved” blurbs

This includes suggestions on how residents can help implement the plan, as well as how to hold City agencies and elected officials accountable.

“Edgemere Community Groups” profiles

This includes profiles of organizations active in Edgemere. Each profile consists of a short summary of the group’s mission and services to increase awareness of existing local opportunities for civic engagement.

“Implementation Matrix” appendix

A list of all projects which includes the responsible City agency, funding status, and expected timeline for each project.

Document Guides

“Did you know” call outs

These call outs contain links to City resources that residents can access at any time. These are categorized within the specific chapters and often connect City resources to the specific strategies and featured projects. The Resilient Edgemere website will include additional resources.
